WATERFRONT NOTES Some time ago Congress appropriated $215 for a light-house tender for these islands and it now appears that the boat will soon be here. The contract for it to be built within a year has been let. The following is the official description of the Kukui: The Kukui is a schooner-rigged steel steamer of 900 tons displacement. She measures 190 feet over all, with 473 feet 4 inches load-water line has 30-foot beam, 12-foot draft, 12 1/4 knots speed, and 1000 horsepower.

The inter-island steamer Helen arrived here at noon with 11,456 bags of sugar and a deckload of cattle. She came from Kaunakakai. The Korea is due to sail at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the Coast. She has picked a large number of passengers here who have been in Hawaii for some time, and are now on their way home.

The Kinau, from Hawaii and way ports this morning, brought the following cargo: 1 auto, 2 horses, 3 bales awa, 4 boxes celery, 7 pigs, 17 bales vegetables, 18 bags cabbage, 20 bags taro, 21 empty kegs, 39 barrels empty bottles, 50 1-2 cords wood, 72 bags bones, 279 sheep, 157 packages sundries.

Charles S. Pillsbury, the multi-millionaire flour man of Minneapolis, is at the St. Francis and leaves for Honolulu and the Orient on the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia today. Mr. Pillsbury is of the opinion that the modern movement going on now in China will mean in the near future a remarkable increase in flour shipments from California and the Pacific Coast to the celestial kingdom.

Mr. Pillsbury's suit embraces some fourteen people. They have the best rooms in the hotel at an expense of $1099 a day. The Minneapolis flour king is to spend six weeks in Honolulu and is to spend $2000 in rent of a mansion there during his stay. From there he will go to Japan and China for three or four months.
